The Future Leader Experience is an experiential programme which will bring up to 50 of your peers from the University of Glasgow together to explore leadership in practice. You will take part in challenging discussions with leaders and go behind the scenes of organisations, gaining hands-on experience through exploring the challenges they face.

You will also develop your leadership skills, confidence and Cultural Intelligence by interacting with senior leaders from organisations globally and across Glasgow.

Who could I meet?

- Glasgow City Council
- Microsoft
- Rolls-Royce Plc
- Morgan Stanley

Gain a micro-credentials!

Upon completion of the programme, you will have the opportunity to claim a 'Inclusive Leadership' micro-credential, which you can display on your LinkedIn profile and as part of your digital backpack.

What happens?

Over three days you will:

- Understand the skills you need for your future success
- Develop your Cultural Intelligence to collaborate with a diverse range of people
- Understand how decisions are made and how change happens
- Test your leadership skills and ability to innovate
- Broaden your horizons by meeting leaders from a range of backgrounds
- Build vision, self-awareness and confidence
- Grow a wide network needed for success today
- Tackle a real-life organisational challenge as set by our guest organisation

"It was a great way to get to know new people who are culturally/racially different compared to me, and it was particularly easy because it was online. Being online in a safe space gave me a comfortable platform to communicate with enough time to connect with peers properly."
